Re: Deposit Account No. 50-3524 (Refund Request)
Customer No. 53953

Dear Ms. Sims:

For U.S. Patent Application Serial No. 09/690,368, I faxed a Request for Continued Examination ("RCE") and Accompanying Amendment to the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office ("USPTO") on Tuesday, July 5, 2005 (see attached fax cover sheet). However, the USPTO did not send me a fax Auto-Reply to confirm the USPTO's receipt of these documents.

Accordingly, on Wednesday, July 6, 2005, I called the USPTO's Electronic Business Center ("EBC"). On that date: (a) the EBC was unable to confirm the USPTO's receipt of these documents; and (b) I followed the EBC's advice by re-faxing the identical documents to the USPTO, including the identification of such fax as being a "Duplicate" (see attached fax cover sheet).

On Monday, July 11, 2005, I called the USPTO's Office of Finance, which informed me that my firm's Deposit Account No. 50-3524 has been charged twice for the $395 RCE fee.

By this letter, I respectfully ask that you please refund the second $395 RCE fee to my firm's Deposit Account No. 50-3524, so that it will be charged once for the $395 RCE fee, instead of being charged twice. In a voice message this morning, the USPTO has confirmed for me that the RCE is being officially recorded once in the USPTO's records, instead of twice.

If I need to provide additional information or do anything else concerning this request, please let me know. I would appreciate your return correspondence to confirm receipt of this request. Thanks for your help.

Respectfully submitted,
